

Small BUSINESS JUMP START

Gary Svetz

INSTRUCTOR

Gary Svetz earned a bachelor's degree from Pennsylvania State University in agricultural engineering and a minor in mechanical engineering. He participated in the MBA program at Penn State and the Niche Marketing program at the University of Chicago. He has trainer certification from Development Dimensions International pertaining to team and quality management training.

Svetz has achieved project management certification from Pennsylvania State University with high honors. And, he has attained several certifications for organizational redesign and development. Svetz has designed and developed a statewide recognized and successful six county entrepreneur program that has graduated over 700 new and existing enhanced business ventures. He has established a veterans' owned business entrepreneur program at no cost to area veterans with over 35 graduates of startup and existing expanding businesses.

Svetz has been an active member of several professional organizations including the American Society of Training and Development, Institute of Management Consultants, The Project Management Institute, Consortium for Entrepreneur Education, Authorized Partner for Wiley Publishing & Associates and several other professional and consultant professional societies.

Gary Svetz is the owner of Svetz Consulting Services, LLC and Svetz Energy Services, LLC.